Home Page |Surname List |Index of Individuals | |Sources

*View Tree for Richard Clifton*Richard Clifton (b. September 17, 1814, d. May 16, 1869)

Richard Clifton (son of Richard Clifton and Jane Bosanko) was born September 17, 1814 in Camborne, Cornwall, England, and died May 16, 1869 in Placerville, Ca.He married Mary Ann Chalders on December 22, 1838 in Wisconsin.

*Includes Notes*Notes for Richard Clifton:

1850 census for Jo Daviess Co., Ill shows Richard age 37 his wife 28 John G. 10, Mary Ann 8, William 4, Alice Jane 2 yrs.

The Story of Richard and Mary Ann Clifton: Information came from the Gardiner family bible I believe. I have this in my Gardiner/Thornton family history book.

Richard Clifton, born in England in 1815 (we have it as 1814), and his wife Mary Ann Chalders born in England between 1821-1823. Came to Wisconsin where their first son, John G. was born in 1840.

They moved to Illinois and had three more children- Mary Ann in 1842, William in 1845, Jane in 1848.

On Nov. 16 1852 the family arrived in San Francisco aboard the steamer "Pacific" from San Juan del Sur.

The family settled in Middletown (now part of Placerville) where Richard was a miner until he bought or homestead 140 acres in Middletown. Here they had three more children- Minnie Eliz born in 1853, Richard J. in 1856, Thomas Henry in 1858.

Richard died in 1869 or 70 and left the Clifton Ranch to his wife who died in 1876 or77. Her will left the ranch to her children in this manner:

Mrs. Mary Ann Clifton Clard- 1/5 interest
Richard J. Clifton- 1/5 interest
William Clifton- 1/5 interest
Thomas Henry Clifton- 15 interest

The children of Mrs. Minnie E. Cocking, nee Clifton, her daughter, Anna and Minnie Cocking- 1/10 interest or a 15 share as a whole to divide.

Richard and Mary Ann are buried in Middletown Cemetery.

Hi Fayth:
All I can tell you is that Jane Bosanko married Richard Clifton in Camborne Cornwall. Richard was born 22 Apr.1781 in Camborne. They had four children. Richard born 17 Sep. 1814 Camborne.

m: 5 Jul 1813
Camborne

Clarinda .. 22 Mar. 1817 .. *IGI P002071
Elizabeth 2 Oct. 1819 .. ? 18 July 1819 "
Eliza .. 2 Oct. 1824 ..

I am now searching the history of Richard Jr. he came to IL. And in 1853 he and his wife went on to the gold rush in Ca. About 5 generations are now living in Ca. Richard Sr. was a cousin to my gt gt grandfather.

Richard & Grace

Richard and Grace were my 5X Grandparents

Richard Clifton was born in the old village of Week St. Mary about three miles from the ocean, near the Devon border. Richard was Christened on April 26, 1725. He was the son of John Clifton and Patience (Ryder). They were from a very well-known family that had been in the area since at least the early 1500s.

Richard moved to Camborne some time before September 9, 1751. I don't know the reason for his leaving Week St. Mary, but he did marry on this date in Camborne to Grace Smith. Grace was born with the name Grace Jeffery. (In Cornwall at that time many families used alias' for many different reasons. The most common reason being a common name like Jeffery, but to change it to Smith does not make sense to me.) So because there were many of her family members using the name Smith, I think that Smith was the real name, and some changed it to Jeffery.

I assume that Richard came to Camborne looking for work, or to seek his fortune. I don't know if he found his fortune but he did find his place in life as we all do in time. Richard and Grace were the first Clifton's to live in Camborne.

The town of Camborne, ancient even at the time of Richard, was only a small town in the year 1751. To give you some idea of how small it was, only ten couples were married that year. The surnames of the couples were Tyack, William's, Bennetts, Clifton, Trezona, Richards, and Trythall.

The first child born to Richard and Grace was named Patience after Richard's mother, the second child was named John after Richard's father. Naming the children after the husband's mother and father was common at that time in Cornwall. In most families the wife had little influence in naming the children, but there were exceptions. The third child was named after Richard's brother William and the fourth after his sister Mary (baby Mary died at age two). The fifth child was a boy named after Richard. The sixth child, a girl to take the place and name of Mary (this was a common practice at that time to name the next child of the same gender after the one that died). Now we come to the last child and fortunately the child was a girl so they named her Grace. Since she gave birth to all these children one should have been a namesake.

There are no records to tell us much about Richard and his family. We have their wedding date, christening and burial dates, but that is about all. I have read a few books about how the people of Cornwall lived at that time and in my mind's eye I can just picture Richard walking the cow paths on his way to seek his fortune. (Most of the roads in Cornwall were built on top of cow paths — that is why they have so many turns in them.)

I understand that the older sons got to keep the land and the younger ones had to go out in the world to find their own life. In most cases at that time, the younger sons would stay close by the area and would have some support of their family and friends. Richard decided to leave the area.

At that time there was a boom in the copper mining industry in Cornwall. There was no place on earth that had more copper than the Camborne-Redruth area of Cornwall. That is one reason that he may have come to Camborne. Another is that the Clifton family had leased a few Inns from the Bassett Family and he must have had some experience running a Hotel or Inn. The Bassett family were one of the major property and mine owners in the area. With the copper boom going on, most of the male population were in the area to work the mines — so the need for lodging must have been great.

One other reason could have been the influence of John Wesley (he was the founder of Methodism). John Wesley was in Week St. Mary in 1745 and went on to Camborne. He could have followed him, but I doubt it.

So now we find Richard and Grace married. Now, they must have a house to live in. There was a problem that could be solved very easily. Richard had to get permission from a landowner to build a house on a small piece of his children after the husband's mother and father was common at that time in Cornwall. In most families the wife had little influence in naming the children, but there were exceptions. The third child was named after Richard's brother William and the fourth after his sister Mary (baby Mary died at age two). The fifth child was a boy named after Richard. So now we find Richard and Grace married. Now, they must have a house to live in. There was a problem that could be solved very easily. Richard had to get permission from a landowner to build a house on a small piece of his land. The landowner was most likely a member of the Bassett family. The permission was usually given with the stipulation that it must be built and covered with a roof in one day. Also, at the death of the head of the family or perhaps the death of his children the house became the property of the landowner. That way the landowner could be sure that his grandchild would be able to take over this property and rent it to another poor person.

With the help of his friends and co-workers, Richard could build a house in one day. The men would build with stone that they accumulate and the roof was made of slate that was cut beforehand. There was very little wood in that area that could be used, but there was a lot of wooden ships that would crash against the rocks and then float in to the shore to be used by the builders.

I have seen some of the homes that were built in this manner that are still standing. In one house that I was in, the owner told me that he removed a wall that was made of a mixture of mud and straw. In the wall he found the bones of a baby. I read that this was common at that time because of a tax that had to be paid for the burial.

They would build two fireplaces. One would be for the big family dinner, and the other would be small, so as not to use too much fuel for just making a pot of tea. The floor was made of dirt and later would be made of a mixture of ash and stone. The houses were very poor by any standards, but they were made better by their owners as time went on. The houses had two rooms: one was the kitchen and the other was for everything else. There were some houses that did have a second floor for sleeping.

So now we have Richard and Grace living in their own home and I suppose Grace, if she was near her mother, would have her help with the furnishings and before long the house would be comfortable. Richard and Grace lived together in Camborne for forty-seven years. Richard was buried on May 28, 1796. Grace was buried on May 2, 1802. They had many children and grandchildren to comfort them and although they had to work from morning to night with little worldly goods to show for the work they did, you could say that they found success and built a base on which we draw on even to this day.

I seem to like Richard because he had the courage to leave the comfort of his home in Week St. Mary and to go out in a world that I am sure he was not familiar with. Like John Henry Clifton he did not sit back and wait for his future to be made for him. He went forth on his own and made a life for himself and his family.

When my wife and I moved to Florida I felt a little fear and for no reason. Rose and I are skilled workers. She as a typesetter and I as a plumber-pipefitter. I know that we can always earn a living and yet I still felt this fear that Richard and John Henry must have felt. Camborne was booming with work and I suppose he knew this and it must have seemed like the best place to go. I donÌt know what year he want to Camborne, I only know that he married Grace Smith on September 8, 1751 and they lived in Cornwall until their death.

Subject: BOSANKO name

Hi All,

As Kay has opened the debate about the origins of the surname, I thought you may be interested in some early spellings of the name which can be found in the 'Cornwall Subsidies in the Reign of Henry VIII' which is a record of taxes imposed on subjects in the first half of the 16th Century. This contains four entries regarding our ancestors in Cornwall, one of which directly supports the derivation given by the author of Kay's newspaper cutting and is probably the origin of the explanation, as follows:

"1543 Truro Borough (Truro) John Bossancow G3"

However, the entry for two years later gives:

"1545 Mowsseholde (Mousehole in Paul) William Bossancott G7" and, more importantly, the two earliest entries are as follows:

"1524 Crowen (Crowan) John Bosanquoth G2"

"1524 Paule (Paul) John Bossanquyth G2"

{ G2,G3,G7 are grades of taxation with the G meaning goods}

Also, the same reference book refers to an old Cornish place name in the 1540's which I have never come across before as follows:

BOSSANKETH in the parish of Buryan.

Best wishes & happy new year,

John.

DENSCH 11/94

HUNGER AGONY OF CORNWALL.

"Daily Express" Special Correspondent. Nov 24/21

REDRUTH, Wednesday.

Crowds of men have been standing in queues to-day at the Labour Exchanges signing on for the new scale of unemployment benefit.

The new scale for a spell will bring the married men those few extra shillings a week that will mean a meal on days which are now foodless.

Owing to administrative difficulties few have yet been paid the new allowance, which gives them 5s. for the wife and 1s. for each child, but all those eligible should receive it this week. It will help them to keep a stiff lip for a while longer, but it will not save them.

I have just spent a sickening, heart-rending morning in the homes of some of these people, chatting with them and hearing first-hand stoic stories that were not always willingly revealed. The exteriors of the cottages conspire with the men and women themselves to hide the agony that is within them. The windows are polished and the doorsteps clean.

OUTWARD CALM.

Invariably a little white curtain and often a small jar of flowers bedeck the tiny front room window and beguile the uninformed passer-by into thinking that not much can be amiss. One might go through all these small towns and villages and see hardly any outward sign of the relentless tragedy that is being played out in them.

You scratch the neat surface, and this is the sort of thing you find:—

In the first cottage I visited I met a tall, gaunt man, who has had fifteen weeks' work during the last two years and four months. He has a wife and eight children. For a year or more he drew fifteen shillings a week unemployment benefit, but for many weeks he drew nothing. One boy earns eight or nine shillings a week, and a girl half-a-crown. He told me shamefacedly that for a few weeks he received parish relief of a pound a week and five loaves.

"But," he added, almost challengingly, "I have stopped that. I have told the guardians not to send it any more. I cannot bear to see the relieving officer's cart pull up at my door. I would rather see a corpse go out of it. If we cannot get five loaves then we must make do with one, and my wife is a good manager."

He said all this simply, unassumingly, utterly unconscious that he was saying anything wonderful. Here is another case:—

The father has spent forty-four working years in the mines of Cornwall. The wife has had twenty-seven children. Six of the children live in the cottage home, as well as a married daughter with her three children. There are nine children and three adults, and the man, a hardy old Cornishman, honest-eyed but carrying a look like that of a wounded dog, has been out of work for fourteen months.

A PITTANCE.

For weeks they lived on the unemployment benefit of 15s., with perhaps a parcel of food.

For six weeks, seven shillings and sixpence, two loaves, and one quart of milk came from the parish.

"Sometimes," said the woman, "I think we should have starved but for the police."

I will give boldly one or two of the facts that came out in conversation. Sometimes in the autumn the two women got up at six in the morning, gathered blackberries, sold them, and with the money bought bread for the children's breakfasts.

The man has been three days without food so that the children might have what there was. A day without food is for him a common thing, and he often hears the children cry because they are hungry.

I asked him what he thought of it all. He said he thought it was "a bit tough," and hoped there would soon be some wor to do.

That is the sort of stuff these peopl are made of. They bite on the bulle think things are tough, and hope that th clouds will break. They have been doin that for months.

The children of school age are the most fortunate in this little world of distress. They do get one square meal a day provided by the education authorities.

Accidentally drowned.

The following inquests have lately been held by W. Hichens, Esq.:—

—On the 17th inst., at Gwinear, on the body of Wm. Paul, aged about 21 years. The deceased was a miner and worked at Stray Park mine, in the parish of Camborne. He left his father's house on Saturday morning last in perfect health to pursue his labor, and on his arrival at the mine, went into the smith's shop to put on a toe-plate to one of his shoes, and whilst standing at a bench there, in the act of nailing it on, he fell to the ground in a state of insensibility and expired almost immediately. Verdict, "Natural death."

1848

— On the 19th, in the parish of Crowan, on the body of Elizabeth Bosanko, aged 19 years, wife of John Bosanko, of that parish, miner. The deceased being very near her confinement in child-birth, and feeling rather unwell on Monday morning last, got her husband to call to her assistance Grace Hart, who lived in an adjoining house, whilst he went to his labor; and she was with the deceased frequently during the day, leaving her only for a short time together, whilst she attended to her own family. Towards evening, the deceased fell asleep and slept about a quarter of an hour, when she awoke apparently very much better, and leant up in the bed on her elbow, but very shortly after she fell back and began to kick most violently as if in great pain, and blood and froth spouted out of her mouth. She became speechless and apparently senseless from that time, and died in that state in about a quarter of an hour afterwards, in the presence of Grace Hart and two other women. The husband went immediately to get medical assistance, but she died before he returned. Verdict, "Natural death."

In 1867 the local clergy were so concerned about the condition of the min= ers families, especially the wives, children and widowed mothers of those who had emigrated, that an appeal for money was made in the papers and a committee met to assess the problems and deal with them.
The following list appeared like this only once (and it needs careful reading) - the next time there were no names, just the total money paid t= o
the unions.

COUNTY DISTRESS.
Money paid out-
It was resolved that this Committee do, under no circumstances, grant rel= ief towards migration, to an extent exceeding one half of the total amount required.
It was required that no assistant be afforded towards migration at all, except it be for the purpose of emigration to places out of the United Kingdom.
On the applications for assistance to migrate, the following were conside= red inadmissible under the foregoing resolution:=A8
Mary Penaluna, of Wendron,
Mrs. Roberts, of Ludgvan;
Eliza Symons, Ludgvan
Mrs. Wm. Symonds, Ludgvan; Elizabeth Jane Bosanko, Trevegean, St. Just.
In the case of Margaret Burgess, of St. Breage, the sub-committee of the Helston District was authorised to contribute =A37 10s. towards the cost = of her emigration to join her husband, provided her friends find the remaini= ng passage money, and that the Union provide the necessary clothing.
A grant of =A310 was made, on similar conditions, in the case of Jane Sym= ons, of Breage.
ditto
=A38 Christiana Rowe of Breage
=A312 Catherine Lawrence of Ludgvan
=A38 Mary Waters of Mendowers, Phillack =A36 Jane Williams, of Bosavern, St. Just =A38 Hannah Williams, Trewellard, St. Just.
The following ineligible
Elizabeth Thomas of Breage
Nancy Rowe, of Marazion Margery Williams of Trewellard, St Just
The cases following were deferred for further information as to the abili= ty of the husbands to maintain their wives and families, and willingness to receive them:-
Ann Frances Glasson, of St. Erth
Mary Barker, St Erth
Elizabeth Ann Lawry, Marazion
Margaret Semmens, Marazion
Mary Goldsworthy, widow, Marazion (to ascertain whether her child a son o= r a daughter)
